DANCE THEATRE OF HARLEM
JOB DESCRIPTION
Director of Institutional Giving
Status: Full Time, Exempt

Dance Theatre of Harlem is a leading dance institution of unparalleled global acclaim, encompassing a professional performing Company, a leading arts education center and Dancing Through Barriers®, a national education and community outreach program. Each component of Dance Theatre of Harlem carries a solid commitment towards enriching the lives of young people and adults around the world through the arts.

Founded in 1969 by Arthur Mitchell and Karel Shook, Dance Theatre of Harlem was considered “one of ballet’s most exciting undertakings” (The New York Times, 1971). Shortly after the assassination of The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Mitchell was inspired to start a school that would offer children — especially those in Harlem, the community in which he was born — the opportunity to learn about dance and the allied arts. Now in its fifth decade, Dance Theatre of Harlem has grown into a multi-cultural dance institution with an extraordinary legacy of providing opportunities for creative expression and artistic excellence that continues to set standards in the performing arts. Dance Theatre of Harlem has achieved unprecedented success, bringing innovative and bold new forms of artistic expression to audiences in New York City, across the country and around the world.

Reporting to the Senior Director of Development, the Director of Institutional Giving will execute and manage a robust institutional fundraising plan that supports significant growth and long-term sustainability for Dance Theatre of Harlem.

The Director of Institutional Giving will focus on foundation, government and corporation cultivation, stewardship, and solicitation. In addition, this role will focus on researching new funding opportunities, and building an expanding portfolio of institutional funders. The position will also be responsible for multi-dimensional fundraising activities that include grants management, corporate involvement, and cultivation events. The position will be working in collaboration with the Senior Director of Development, the Director of Individual Giving, the Executive Director, and Board of Directors.

Primary Duties Include:

Solicitation & Strategy

- In collaboration with the Senior Director of Development, create and implement a strong fundraising strategy and plan targeting foundations, corporations, and government agencies
- Initiate, cultivate, manage, and steward relationships with current foundation, corporation and government funders, expanding an existing portfolio with the goal of increasing revenue from institutional funders
- Grow and maintain active pipelines and manage communications with existing and potential institutional donors
- Identify fundraising opportunities, including program areas for funding aligned to organizational goals, and influence institutional funders when they are forming their strategies
