Dance Theatre of Harlem’s home season at New York City Center kicks off in exciting fashion with the Company premiere of William Forsythe’s The Vertiginous Thrill of Exactitude. Set to the soaring final movement of Franz Schubert’s Symphony No. 9, this electrifying work pays homage to Petipa and Balanchine with its dazzling partnering and lightning-fast allegro. Yet, it's unmistakably modern, a bold celebration of the dancers' ability to transform technical challenges into exhilarating feats of physical mastery. Adding to the evening, the Company brings George Balanchine's Donizetti Variations to its repertoire for the first time—a lively, effervescent series of dances set to Donizetti's Don Sebastian opera. While the tone is bright and cheery, the technical demands on the dancers are anything but, showcasing two bravura performers in a masterclass of elegance and endurance.

For his second New York City season as Dance Theatre of Harlem's Artistic Director, Robert Garland delivers two works that showcase his unique choreographic style. Headlining the weekend is the ever-popular Return, a soulful, high-octane celebration to the timeless sounds of James Brown and Aretha Franklin. But that's just the beginning—Garland's latest creation, a tribute to Black joy, makes its highly anticipated New York debut at City Center.

Rounding out the company's season is work from the revered Jodie Gates, bringing her magic to DTH unveiling her own world premiere. Expect nothing less than a dazzling display of artistry that promises to captivate and delight. This season is a must-see celebration of dance at its most exhilarating.

ABOUT DANCE THEATRE OF HARLEM

Dance Theatre of Harlem is a leading dance institution of unparalleled global acclaim, encompassing a world class company, a professional studio school, a leading arts education program - Dancing Through Barriers®, and community engagement activities. Each component of Dance Theatre of Harlem carries a solid commitment towards enriching the lives of young people and adults around the world through the arts. Founded in 1969 by Arthur Mitchell and Karel Shook, Dance Theatre of Harlem was considered "one of ballet's most exciting undertakings" (The New York Times, 1971). Shortly after the assassination of The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Mitchell was inspired to start a school that would offer children — especially those in Harlem, the community in which he was born — the opportunity to learn about dance and the allied arts. Now in its 56th year, Dance Theatre of Harlem has grown into a multi-cultural dance institution with an extraordinary legacy of providing opportunities for creative expression and artistic excellence that continues to set standards in the performing arts.

Dance Theatre of Harlem celebrates its annual homecoming season and Vision Gala from April 10-13, 2025 with performances held at New York City Center (131 West 55th Street).
